

<http://www.allenmartinscam.com> - Allen Martin's Addresses

Hey, just in case you get the wrong idea, I am not advocating that you go out and kill him, no matter how much you may feel like it and no matter how much he deserves it. Hopefully the information below will help ensure that he gets the justice he deserves and that everyone gets their money returned.

A number of addresses have been associated with Christian Gasper/Allen Martin. I have three addresses in Germany and one in the UK.

UK

Initially I was sure that his UK address may have been fictitious. However he indicated to someone once that he lived in both the UK and Germany and I have received an email from a London IP address when Allen was posing as one of his subscribers, so there is a slight chance that the UK address is not fake.

For anyone in the London area it would be good if you could check it out and let us all know what you find.

AMC Marketing, Greenwich High Rd 21, Greenwich, London 06831, United Kingdom

This address along with his German addresses should be supplied to police and other authorities when submitting reports.

Germany

Regardless of whether the UK address is fake or not, Germany appears to be Christian Gasper's main base. His domains are generally registered from a German address and his bank account into which all his stolen money goes is in Germany. Again if anyone scammed lives close to Weisbaden it would be good if they could check up what they can and let us know.

I have three addresses for Christian Gasper in Germany.

The most recent address used for registration of domains or hosting, and therefore the most likely current address is the Lahnstrasse 18 address below. I has recently been used to register the domains, christiangasper.com, marketing-apprentice.com, rgsoftw.com and operation10x.com in the period May to August 2016. August is only two months ago at the time of writing this.

Christian has another address in Weisbaden, the one that was used to register imallenmartin.com in February 2015 from which was where the scam emails originated. It was also used to register marketing-allen.com in May 2015 but has not been used since.

Originally since he privatised the domain information for imallenmartin.com soon after this website went up, I assumed that this was his current address. While he may still own or rent this address as a second or third address, the main candidate for his current address is fairly likely to be the Lahnstrasse 18.

The reason for privatising the other address was probably to hide his name, phone number and email address which are the same for all the German addresses, and to hide the fact from the authorities that the scam website was owned by Christian Gasper rather than Allen Martin.

This 2nd Wiesbaden address below was used to register Imallenmartin.com in February 2015 and marketing-allen.com in May 2015 but has not been used recently.

Registrant Name: christian gasper

The last address had been used for domain registrations at an earlier date so is unlikely to be current, but if Christian Gasper is not found through the other two German addresses it is worth following up
